

Independent Aboriginal Delegate South Gippsland Water Board

South Gippsland Water is offering a paid development opportunity for an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander to be an Independent Aboriginal Delegate on our Board. If you're interested in becoming a future Board Director, this opportunity is ideal for you.

The one-year, part-time role (requiring a time commitment of approximately two days per month) lets the successful applicant join Board meetings in a non-voting position. It's a great way to gain practical, hands-on experience.

No previous Board experience is required. We'll support you to build your skills in the role, with training and mentorship.

You'll be able to provide an independent perspective on a range of issues. Connection to community, a willingness to learn, and the ability to contribute to an effective Board culture are essential. We encourage applicants of all ages to apply.

The role runs for an initial period of 12 months with the potential for extension on mutual agreement, with a significant induction offered. To apply, please email us a copy of your current resume and a letter or video addressing the significance of this opportunity for you, along with your existing experience and/ or interest in developing skills in any of the following areas:

- Financial and commercial management
- Community engagement
- Land and water management
- Climate change
- Strategy and risk management
- Infrastructure and project management
- Corporate governance
